Description:	The Soho Grand Hotel is famous for establishing itself as Manhattan's first luxury downtown boutique hotel. Opened on August 4, 1996, The Soho Grand is located in the heart of SoHo, alongside world-renowned art galleries, boutiques and restaurants. Undeterred that downtown's SoHo district had been devoid of hotels for over a century, owners Leonard and Emanuel Stern, of Hartz Mountain Industries, developed their pioneering vision in, what is now, the city's most sought after neighborhood. The result quickly became one of the world's most celebrated boutique hotels and Soho Grand continues to be an integral part of the neighborhood's fabric, home to savvy locals and sophisticated travelers alike.
Food & Beverage:	A favorite haunt for savvy locals and refined travelers alike, the Soho Grand boasts diverse options for dining and cocktails. From the infamous Grand Bar to the elegant Club Room; all rooms have been carefully designed with custom furniture and lighting creating intimate settings with a luxurious yet relaxed sensibility that effortlessly transitions from day to night. Acclaimed Chef Richard Farnabe turns out a menu of classic American fare with French nuances that pair perfectly with the selection of wines and delicious mix of signature cocktails.
Meetings & Special Events:	With stunning indoor and outdoor options, the Soho Grand offers the most exclusive and compelling spaces for both business and social events. The Harbor Room and the Yard are two newly constructed areas offer 5,000 square feet of combined indoor and outdoor event space. With floor to ceiling windows, the Harbor Room has an airy, open feel and can be separated into 3 smaller meeting rooms. Connected to the Harbor Room is the Yard, an outdoor space perfect for meeting breaks, catered lunches and private parties. In addition to the new spaces, the classic Chart Room is Soho Grand's elegant meeting and banquet hall, which can accommodate 80 guests theatre style.
